ORDER

Crim. No. 2009-004(SRC)

This matter having come before the Court, on July 9, 2014, concerning Defendant Edward Cobb, through his counsel (DeCotiis, FitzPatrick & Cole, LLP); and where, on or about September 11, 2011, the defendant Cobb was sentenced to a term of incarceration and ordered to surrender to a designated Federal Correction facility; and,

Since 2011, Mr. Cobb's surrender date has been postponed on several occasions to accommodate various medical procedures; presently, there are additional medical procedures to be scheduled, as well as what appears to be the emergence of a newly discovered medical problem; and,

The Court having reviewed these newly emerging medical issues; and, the United States having consented to the entry of this Order; and, for good cause shown;

It is on this ____ day of July 2014

ORDERED that the defendant's surrender date of July 18, 2014 is hereby extended for 90 days to October 10, 2014; thereafter the defendant Cobb shall report to his designated facility on or about October 14, 2014, unless further extended by this Court; and,

It is FURTHER ORDERED that, should the defendant believe that his medical condition is irreparable, and his entire term of incarceration should be further reviewed, then any submission for such a review must be filed with this Court within 90 days of the date of this ORDER, with the United States being given an opportunity to challenge said application; and,

It is FURTHER ORDERED that the defendant shall submit to any reasonable medical examination(s) at the request of the Government.

HON. STANLEY R. CHESLER, U.S.D.J.
